THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION

The second of two harbors leased permanently by the Chinese Communists to the USSR* has been identified as Lienyun (Hsukou) (119-22, 34-43), 20 miles north of the Haichou-Suchou-Kaifeng railroad terminus.

Comment. It is possible that this port is fairly active now (see previous reports on trade between Tsingtao and Lienyunkang) and that Soviet personnel are there, but it is doubtful that the port would be leased permanently to the USSR.

This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 18 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.
